Dear MD SWAPON SHEIKH,

Your application for a visit visa to the United Kingdom has been refused.

What this means for you

Any future UK visa applications you make will be considered on their individual merits, however you are likely to be refused unless the circumstances of your application change.

In relation to this decision, there is no right of appeal or right to administrative review.

The reasons for this decision are set out on the next page.

Yours sincerely,

SB
UKVI

The Data Protection Act 2018 governs how we use personal data. For details of how we will use your personal information and who we may share it with please see our Privacy Notice for the Border, Immigration and Citizenship system at <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/personal-information-use-in-borders-immigration-and-citizenship>. This also explains your key rights under the Act, how you can access your personal information and how to complain if you have concerns.

REASONS FOR REFUSAL

You have applied for a visa to visit the UK.

In deciding whether you meet the requirements of Appendix V: Visitor of the Immigration Rules (<https://www.gov.uk/guidance/immigration-rules/immigration-rules-appendix-v-visitor>), I have considered:

- your application and any additional relevant information you have provided with it
- your immigration history

The decision

I have refused your application for a visit visa because I am not satisfied that you meet the requirements of paragraph(s) V4.2 to V4.6 of Appendix V: Immigration Rules for Visitors because: You have applied to visit the UK for 8 days for tourism. You have stated that you are self-employed and have provided documents in support of your application. I have taken into account the information you have provided to come to a decision.

You have stated that you are self-employed with an annual income of 6,000,000 BDT (£36,392.80 as per www.oanda.com). I acknowledge the documents you have submitted in support of your application. I note the e-trade license you have provided as such that I am satisfied you have a registered business. However, the documents you have do not demonstrate whether your business is active and generating profit or how you have calculated your stated annual income. The documents you have demonstrated do not demonstrate your financial circumstances in your home country or country of residence. I am not satisfied that you have accurately presented your circumstances and therefore your intentions in applying to enter the United Kingdom. This undermines the credibility of your application to the extent that I am not satisfied that you are genuinely seeking entry as a visitor or intend to leave the UK at the end of your visit.

Overall, I am not satisfied that you have provided an accurate account of your personal and economic circumstances in your country of residency which leads me to doubt your intentions in the United Kingdom, which damages the overall credibility of the statements made in your application and leads me to doubt your intent to enter the UK as a genuine visitor.

I am therefore not satisfied that you are genuinely seeking entry for the period as stated by you or that you will leave the United Kingdom at the end of your visit. Your application is therefore refused under paragraphs V4.2 (a) and (c) of the Immigration Rules.
